

ALBERTO CHINES

PIANIST

ENGLISH

Alberto Chines, a Steinway Artist since 2020, is a multifaceted pianist who combines an extensive solo career with a profound interest in chamber music and education.

His training, enriched by encounters and masterclasses with world-renowned artists, was consolidated at the Imola Academy under the guidance of Franco Scala and Piero Rattalino, and at the Bolzano Conservatory with Davide Cabassi. After debuting at just fifteen years old at the Teatro Massimo in Palermo, he captured the attention of critics by winning first prize at the International “Palma d’Oro” Competition in Finale Ligure (2011), the Sony Classical Talent Scout in Madesimo (2013), and second prize at the Euregio Piano Award in Geilenkirchen (2014).

His concert activity has led him to perform at prestigious international venues, including the Van Cliburn Recital Hall in Fort Worth (USA), the Mozart Hall of the Accademia Filarmonica in Bologna, the Teatro Olimpico in Vicenza, the Politeama Garibaldi in Palermo, and the Teatro alla Scala in Milan. He has performed in London for the Keyboard Charitable Trust and at the Klaviertage of the Tiroler Festspiele Erl (Austria). He recently debuted at the Bartolomeo Cristofori Festival in Padua, performing Schönberg’s Pierrot Lunaire for voice and solo piano, alongside his own transcription of Stravinsky’s Sacre du Printemps.

Alberto Chines is also a passionate chamber musician. He regularly collaborates with artists such as Anna Serova, Eugenio Della Chiara, Emanuele Delucchi, Rebecca Taio, Danilo Pastore, and the Quartetto Noûs, exploring repertoire from duo to quintet with a strong emphasis on contemporary music. His discography includes a debut album for BAM International featuring works by Bach, Schumann, Ravel, and Bartók.

Also active in cultural promotion, he was the creator of the Musica Manent Festival in Ustica and collaborates regularly with the Primavera di Baggio in Milan.

Alberto Chines is Piano Professor at the “Francesco Venezia” Conservatory in Rovigo.

🌐 www.albertochines.com

✉ info@albertochines.com

☎ +39 348 8550449